[별첨: 에세이] | Attachment: Essay]

※ 별도 문서(에세이) 첨부 요망. Attach your essay in a separate file.

에세이 작성 시 주의사항 Please refer to the following guideline when writing:

- ☐ Length: 4,000-6,000 words (excluding footnotes), including an abstract (max 200 words) and section headings.

*Essays under or over the word limit will be automatically disqualified.

- ☐ Format: Times New Roman 12pt, Double-spaced, footnotes using Chicago Style (17th Edition.)

*Chicago Style: A writing and citation style guide with two citation formats:

1)Foot notes and bibliography (*recommended usage for this essay)

2)Author-date

※ Use of AI chat programs for generating footnotes and bibliographies is permitted; however, the use of AI in the essay text itself is not allowed.

- ☐ Essay format: Follow the exact format and style in the “Essay Template” document. It is already formatted for style, line spacing, font size/style, margins, and page numbering:

A. Academic integrity: Essays that are written using generative AI programs (i.e., AI to generate sentences/text) and chatbots will be disqualified.

B. Title page: Use the exact font, font size, and line spacing in the “Essay Template.”

C. Abstract: maximum 200 words. Include 3-5 key words. The paragraph style should be justified as seen in the Essay Template.

D. Introduction: clearly state your problem/puzzle or original research question.

- The first sentence of the first paragraph under Introduction, each Heading/Sub Heading, Policy Recommendations, and Conclusion should be Aligned Left. For subsequent paragraphs, the first sentence of the paragraph should be indented Right. Sub Headings are optional and to be used as necessary. See “Essay Template”(에세이 양식) document. Use as many paragraphs under each section as deemed necessary. You may, of course, have several sections with their respective Heading and (optional) SubHeading.

- Clearly state your original research question and explain how you will answer it (methodology)
- Explicitly state why your chosen topic is relevant to the alliance.

E. Citations: cite all references as footnotes using Chicago Style 17th Edition. See the seven sample footnotes in the Essay Template. Do not include a Bibliography or Works Cited page.

- Insufficient number of footnoted citations will result in automatic disqualification. If you read it, cite it. If it's not your original idea, cite it. It is better to over cite than under cite.

- If a paragraph uses one reference, do not wait to cite the last sentence of that paragraph. Instead, cite the first sentence that contains your reference in a footnote, and then write "Ibid." in the footnotes for subsequent references in that same paragraph.

F. In the "Policy Recommendations" section, include a very short opening paragraph to set up your recommendations. Then, begin each policy recommendation with "First," "Second," "Third," etc. each as a new paragraph. Include at least 3, but no more than 5, policy recommendations.

G. Bonus points will be given if you have either a theoretical framework or analytical framework that is articulated clearly in the essay.

☐ Footnotes: see format below and real samples in the "Essay Template" document.

A. First name Last name, "Journal Article Title," Journal Name volume number, issue number (date): page number(s)

B. First name Last name, Book Title (Place of Publication: Publisher, Year): page number(s).

C. First name Last name, "Article Title," Outlet Name, Month, Day, Year, website URL.
